

The fractional model gets framed as a compromise.

THE FRAME
what you do until you can afford the real thing
THE PROBLEM
that framing is backwards

Full-time is a bet on a role that doesn't exist yet.

MONTH ONE

a problem you can see today

MONTH TWELVE

a different one entirely

optimises for whichever was visible at hiring time

Not less commitment. Better matched commitment.

THE BETTER FRAME

engagement scales with what's needed this quarter

THE TAKEAWAY

not a lesser version of full-time. a different bet.
